

Consent for Cosmetic Acupuncture

Please read this document carefully and completely.

This is an informed consent that explains the expectations and risks associated with the Cosmetic Acupuncture. Please be advised that this treatment is not a surgical procedure.

The purpose of Cosmetic Acupuncture is to create a younger and more vibrant appearance. A Cosmetic Acupuncture treatment involves the insertion of acupuncture needles to the face, neck and body in order to reduce the visible signs of aging. According to the theory of Traditional Chinese Medicine there are meridians or pathways of Qi (energy) that flow throughout the entire body. Therefore, it is possible for Cosmetic Acupuncture to address the energy of the entire body making it not merely a "cosmetic" treatment. Your complexion reflects the results of the state of Qi in your entire body.

As with all Traditional Chinese Medicine treatments, like acupuncture, the Washizu Body Wellness Cosmetic Acupuncture System involves the patient in a gradual, healthful process that I (Maya Washizu, Lac), customize for each individual. Your treatment may include other modalities in conjunction with the acupuncture and will be explained if they are required for your care. This is not a substitute for a surgical facelift.

In receiving cosmetic facial acupuncture, you may experience some of the following changes:

- Improved muscle tone
- Decreased puffiness around the eyes
- Firming of sagging skin
- Elimination or reduction of fine wrinkles
- Even skin tone and improved luster of complexion

Alternative Treatments

Treatment for sagging skin of the jowl and neck, wrinkles, excess skin above and below the eyes, and excess puffiness under the eyes may be corrected by various methods including, but not limited to, surgical facelift, chemical peels, liposuction, injections, surgical threading, and laser treatments. Risks and potential complications including death, severe scarring, nerve damage, sloughing of skin, lumpiness, swelling, allergic reaction, and permanent discoloration are associated with these alternative forms of treatment.

Risks for Cosmetic Acupuncture

In undertaking any procedure, it is important that you understand the risks involved with receiving the Cosmetic Acupuncture. Although most patients who receive this technique do not experience complications, the potential side effects or risks are listed below:

- 1) Bleeding and Bruising – As with acupuncture in general, when a needles is removed some minor bleeding may occur. This is normal and usually will not leave a bruise. Occasionally, a bruise or hematoma may appear. With bruising, it is important that you wear sunscreen when going outside. Topical and internal remedies will be discussed to address bruising. If swelling persists, call me immediately.

2) Infection – Infection at the needle site is very rare after an acupuncture treatment because the needles are sterile. If you suspect infection at the needling site (i.e. redness, swelling or warm to touch), call me. Additional treatment or referral to your M.D. may be necessary.

3) Asymmetry – All facial structure are naturally asymmetrical. Results may vary from side to side due to the natural asymmetry, previous injuries on one side of the body, or severity of symptoms from one side or the other.

4) Needle Shock – Needles shock is a rare complication that can happen during any acupuncture treatment. If you feel faint or shaky during the treatment, please let me know immediately. PLEASE MAKE SURE YOU HAVE EATEN BEFORE THE TREATMENT.

5) Allergic Reaction – In rare cases, local allergies to topical preparations have been reported. Systemic reactions that are more serious may occur to herbs used during an acupuncture treatment. Skin testing is done prior to application of any herbal preparations. Allergic reactions may require additional treatment or discontinuing of treatment.

6) Delayed Healing – Delayed healing is a rare complication. Smoking and certain health conditions such as diabetes, chronic fatigue syndrome, to name a few may delay the healing response of any of the aforementioned risks.

7) Unsatisfactory Results – It is important to understand that you are not having a surgical procedure. The alternatives, risks, and comparisons of surgical procedures versus acupuncture have been discussed and outlined in this document. Please discuss any questions with me before treatment begins.

Long Term Effects

Following your cosmetic acupuncture treatments, changes in facial appearance may occur as the result of the normal process of aging, weight loss or gain, sun exposure, stress, illness, or the circumstances not related to acupuncture. It has been explained that following lifestyle and dietary instructions may enhance the longevity of the cosmetic acupuncture treatment while non-compliance will adversely affect the longevity of the cosmetic acupuncture treatment. Additional, future treatments may be necessary to maintain the results.

Health Insurance

As with most cosmetic procedures, most health insurance does not cover the cost of the procedure or complications resulting from the procedure. Please contact your insurance if you have any questions about coverage.

Expectations and Guarantee

It has been explained that Cosmetic Acupuncture is not a surgical procedure. My questions regarding longevity of results, expected changes in my facial appearance have been answered. Although good results are expected, there is no guarantee or warranty either expressed or implied on the results that may be obtained.

Disclaimer

Informed consent documents are used to communicate information about the proposed procedure along with disclosure of risks and alternative forms of treatment. They are not intended to define or serve as the standard of acupuncture. However, informed consent documents should not be considered all-inclusive in defining other methods of care and potential risks. Standards of acupuncture are determined on the basis of all the facts involved in an individual case and are subject to change as scientific knowledge and technology advance and as practice patterns evolve. I may provide you with additional or different information that is based on the facts in your particular case and the present state of knowledge within the field of acupuncture.
