

Disclosure

Education and Experience

- . Maya Washizu received the Masters of Science in Oriental Medicine from Southwest Acupuncture College. This 4 year, 3300 hour program, included more than 1000 hours of clinical practice with acupuncture and Chinese herbology and in-depth study of the application of Asian bodywork therapy.
- . Maya holds additional qualifications in Japanese acupuncture and moxibustion, and was granted a Masters Degree in Oriental Medicine from the Medical Expert Institute of Tokyo in 2014. This 3 year, 2000 hour program included clinical practice in acupuncture and moxibustion.
- . Maya Washizu is actively certified as Diplomate in Oriental Medicine since 2008 by the National Certification Commission for Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine (NCCAOM #100331). Oregon License # AC175173.
- . Maya's training includes adjunctive therapies such as moxibustion, tuina, acupressure, cupping, auriculotherapy, cosmetic acupuncture, and dietary and lifestyle recommendations.
- . Maya uses clean sheets, towels and disposable face mask where applicable. Equipment is sprayed or wiped with alcohol after each usage.

Patient's Rights

- . The patient is entitled to receive information about the methods of therapy, the techniques used, and the expected duration of therapy if known.
- . All written records regarding your health history and course of treatment at Washizu Body Wellness will be held in confidentiality and will not be used for any other purpose unless otherwise specified.
- . The patient may seek a second opinion from another healthcare professional or may terminate therapy at any time.

I have carefully read and understand all of the above information and am fully aware of what I am signing.

Signature: _____ Date: _____